

Attractions

management

VOL 19 Q3 2014

MAKING MAGIC

Merlin and DreamWorks
bond over Shrek

PUBLIC PLACES

Should museums
prioritise people?

KEEP ON COMING

Visitor attendance
on the increase

BIGGER & BOLDER

China's latest record-smashing
mega-park

Yas Waterworld

San Diego Zoo

Jorvik Centre

ON THE COVER

MARK ZUCKERBERG

FACEBOOK BUYS OCULUS RIFT AND KEEPS THE FAITH IN VR TECHNOLOGY

Waterparks

Cartoon Network waterpark opens

Cartoon Network's first branded waterpark opens in August to invited guests and annual pass holders in Bang Saray, Thailand. The grand opening – when all features and attractions will be operational – is scheduled for the end of the year.

The highly-anticipated $30.9m (£18.2m, €22.8m) Cartoon Network Amazone, overseen by theme park developers Amazon Falls, was announced at the beginning of 2012, with the television network aiming to open more branded attractions across the Asia-Pacific region.

The attractions – supplied by Polin – incorporate a variety of popular animated series including Adventure Time, Ben 10, The Power Puff Girls, Johnny Bravo and The Amazing World of Gumball.

The waterpark becomes

Many Cartoon Network IPs have been incorporated into the park

Thailand's first globally branded theme park and features signature attractions including a gigantic family wave pool, an adventure river, speed-racing slides, family raft slides and one of the world's largest interactive water fortresses.

"Thailand has excellent tourism credentials, a vibrant culture with a vast history and also the most welcoming people in the world," said the chair of Amazon Falls, Liakat Dhanji. "Cartoon Network is a global household name. We have no doubt that it will be a great draw for our waterpark."

Details: <http://lei.sr?a=y5r2r>